- 1 The gang is searching through all the libraries for a copy of the book Cartis Arcana which should have a magic spell that can get them home. This particular library claims to have it but instead of a book, they find something that isn't supposed to be in this world, an SD card with a recording on it, that only people from Earth would know what to do with.

ADRIANA: Hello. My name is Adriana Santos. I'm from Los Angeles. I left this message in hopes that if there were ever any others to come along, that it may be of assistance. If you found this, you've obviously heard of the Cartis Arcana and you need it. It has the incantation needed to return home to Earth. I hid it in a grave site on the north side of the Necropolis island. The grave marker belongs to one Felix Shoemaker who is a nobody. It is close to the monument for the fallen soldiers of Lorelei Keep or whatever it's called now. If you want to make it home, that's where you should look. I can't provide too many details but the incantation has to be done at a very specific time. Should I survive the journey back to Sunka (Soonkuh) and return home, please find me. Well, I don't have much time and I guess we both know battery life is a precious commodity here. Godspeed and good luck.

Recordings can be emailed to jasonpluka@gmail.com. Audio files should be one of the following:

24-bit or above, wav or flac

mp3 at 192kbps or more

Audio files should have no or minimal background noise unless you note that you will be recording in a proper studio. Files should be titled as your name, hyphen, the character name you're auditioning for, i.e. "Jason Luka – Anannon.mp3."
